LAW & ORDER CADET TRAINING PROGRAM
Sponsored by
the American Legion, Department of Vermont

The Vermont American Legion Law Cadet Program is currently being run in coordination with the New Hampshire Police Cadet Training Program (NHPCTP) who conducts their programs annually in June on the campus of the New Hampshire Technical Institute in Concord, New Hampshire. The tentative dates for the 2022 program are 18 through 24 June 2022. This program is run with over 20 full time Law Enforcement Officers on site as full time staff with numerous others, to include Vermont Officers, instructing specialized courses. Local American Legion Posts pay the expenses sponsoring accepted candidates. Scholarships are also available where post funding is unavailable. This program is available to interested students ages 14 and above who have completed at least one year of high school. Background information can be found at www.nhpcta.org

Have interested candidates complete the information below and mail or email the same to the address above. Information on the 2022 Program, to include application, is not yet available and will be forwarded when available.
